lunch or recess.

(2) A maximum of two (2) school days in a school year when the school corporation dismisses students for a full day to conduct parent-teacher conferences count as student instructional days. However, if students are dismissed for a partial school day for parent-teacher conferences, the partial school day may not count as a partial student instructional day.

(3) A maximum of two (2) school days in a school year when the school corporation dismisses students for a full day to conduct staff professional development activities count as student instructional days. However, if students are dismissed for a partial school day for staff professional development activities, the partial school day may not count as a partial student instructional day.

(c) For the 1987-88 school year, each school corporation shall conduct at least one hundred seventy-five (175) student instructional days. For the 1988-89 school year and each school year after that, Each school corporation shall conduct at least one hundred eighty (180) student instructional days in a school year. No later than June 15 of each school year, the superintendent of each school corporation shall certify to the department the number of student instructional days conducted during that school year.

(d) If a school corporation fails to conduct the minimum number of student instructional days during a school year as required under subsection (c), the department shall reduce the August tuition support distribution to that school corporation by an amount determined as follows:

(1) For the 1987-88 school year, the amount determined under STEP THREE of the following formula:

STEP ONE: Divide the amount of the total tuition support allocated to the school corporation for the 1987-88 school year by one hundred seventy-five (175):

STEP TWO: Subtract the number of student instructional days that the school corporation conducted from one hundred seventy-five (175):

STEP THREE: Multiply the amount determined under STEP ONE by the amount determined under STEP TWO:

(2) For the 1988-89 school year and each school year after that, the amount determined under STEP NINE of the following formula:

STEP ONE: Determine the remainder of:

(A) the amount of the total tuition support allocated to the school corporation for the particular school year; minus
 (B) that part of the total tuition support allocated to the school corporation for that school year with respect to student instructional days one hundred seventy-six (176) through one hundred eighty (180).

STEP TWO: Subtract the number of student instructional days that the school corporation conducted from one hundred eighty (180).

STEP THREE: Determine the lesser of five (5) or the remainder determined under STEP TWO.

STEP FOUR: Divide the amount subtracted under STEP ONE(B) by five (5).

STEP FIVE: Multiply the quotient determined under STEP FOUR by the number determined under STEP THREE.

STEP SIX: Subtract the number determined under STEP THREE from the remainder determined under STEP TWO.

STEP SEVEN: Divide the remainder determined under STEP ONE by one hundred seventy-five (175).

STEP EIGHT: Multiply the quotient determined under STEP SEVEN by the remainder determined under STEP SIX.

STEP NINE: Add the product determined under STEP FIVE to the product determined under STEP EIGHT.

(e) The department may grant a waiver of the penalty imposed under subsection (d) for a particular number of ~~cancelled~~ canceled student instructional days if:

(1) the school corporation applies to the department for a waiver of the penalty imposed under subsection (d) for a specific number of ~~cancelled~~ canceled student instructional days; and

(2) each of the particular number of student instructional days requested to be waived under this subsection was ~~cancelled~~ canceled due to extraordinary circumstances.

(f) The department shall develop guidelines for school corporations to apply for a waiver under subsection (e).

SECTION 2. [EFFECTIVE JULY 1, 2001] 511 IAC 6.1-3-1(f) and 511 IAC 6.1-3-1(g) are void. The publisher of the Indiana Administrative Code and Indiana Register shall remove these subsections from the Indiana Administrative Code.
